

TEEN LEADERSHIP & COMMUNICATIONS: DALE CARNEGIE® SKILLS FOR SUCCESS

HELP YOUR TEENAGERS BUILD THE SKILLS NEEDED TO SUCCEED!

In this day and age where there is an ever increasing concern for the development of teens, the call for leadership and character development is loud and clear. For over 99 years, the Dale Carnegie course has been used to teach professionals how to achieve excellence. Now this training is available to high school students. Dale Carnegie has teamed up with Orange County High Schools, Parent Associations, and Booster Clubs to positively impact teenagers.

Over the past few years, thousands of teens around the world have participated in the Dale Carnegie curriculum. Built on the proven effectiveness of the world's most successful personal and professional development program, these Dale Carnegie courses have been customized to provide high school aged students with the skills they need to succeed and fulfill their potential.

"I no longer see things from only my point of view, but think about how the other person feels and thinks. It really helped me communicate better with my parents."

Brian, Tesoro High School
